

To Investigate the Influence of Setting on Characters

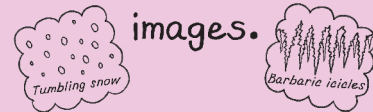

Ask, "What kind of place is this?"

Consider the mood of the place.

Notice how the author's language evokes emotions and images.

Ask, "Is something in the setting pulling a character between competing pressures?"

Investigate how the psychology of a place shifts, and how those shifts affect characters.

Consider how group dynamics or powerful individuals may influence a place.

NO GIRLS ALLOWED!

Pay attention to backstory to gain new insights into characters.

